

Your Voice is Important. Help Restore Our Coast.

BP Oil spill response:

www.nwf.org/oilspill

Learn about National Wildlife Federation's efforts to restore the Gulf and help wildlife. Sign up for email alerts, take action in support of Coastal Louisiana restoration, and learn how you can get involved in the recovery of the Gulf.

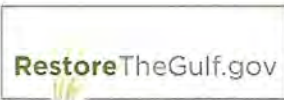

<http://gulfspillrestoration.noaa.gov>

Learn more about the Natural Resources Damage Assessment, submit restoration project ideas, learn more about early NRDA down payment restoration.

<http://losco-dwh.com/>

Louisiana Oil Spill Coordinator's Office: Learn about Louisiana's role in the NRDA process and submit or review projects for restoration. Email karolien.debusschere@la.gov or telephone (225) 925-6606.

www.restorethegulf.gov

Join mailing lists, learn more about the Federal government's response to the BP oil disaster and the Natural Resources Damage Assessment, and download fact sheets.

<http://epa.gov/gulfcoasttaskforce/>

Share your voice on the topic of long-term Gulf restoration with the Gulf Ecosystem Restoration Task Force. Join email lists for notice on upcoming meetings and releases. A draft strategy for restoration will be released July 2011. The final strategy will be submitted to President Obama October 2011.

Send correspondence to:

Gulf Coast Ecosystem Restoration Task Force

Woodrow Wilson Center G1-1

Mail Code 1101 R

1300 Pennsylvania Avenue

Washington, DC 20460

Email: gulfcoasttaskforce@epa.gov, Phone: 1-855-427-9263

Louisiana delegates who have introduced legislation on the Clean Water Act:

<http://landrieu.senate.gov/>

Senator Landrieu's Washington, D.C. Office

431 Dirksen Senate Office Building

Washington, DC 20510

Phone: (202) 224-5824, Fax: (202) 224-9735

Senator Landrieu's New Orleans Office

Hale Boggs Federal Building

500 Poydras Street Room 1005

New Orleans, LA 70130

Phone (504) 589-2427, Fax: (504) 589-4023

<http://www.scalise.house.gov/>
 Representative Scalise's Washington DC Office
 429 Cannon House Office Building
 Washington, DC 20515
 Phone: (202) 225-3015, Fax: (202) 226-0386

Representative Scalise's Metairie Office
 110 Veterans Boulevard, Suite 500
 Metairie, LA 70005
 Phone: (504) 837-1259, Fax: (504) 837-4239

Other plans for Louisiana coastal restoration:

<http://coastal.louisiana.gov>
 Learn about the planning and update process for the 2012 State Master Plan, Regional Stakeholder Workshops and other public meetings, and advice how you can get involved. Email the Master Plan Delivery Team at masterplan@la.gov to learn more. Public meetings will be held throughout the Summer and Fall of 2011. The Master Plan is due to the State Legislature for a vote in March 2012.

www.MRGOmustGO.org
 MRGO Must Go Coalition website: Learn more about the Army Corps restoration plan as well as recommendations submitted from local and national non-profits, academic experts, community leaders, and large landholders. Learn of ways to show support and get involved in the restoration process.

www.MRGO.gov
 This US Army Corps of Engineers site is specifically for Mississippi River Gulf Outlet ecosystem restoration planning. Learn more about the restoration plan and make comments directly to the Army Corps.

<http://nolaenvironmental.gov/>
 US Army Corps of Engineers "Environmental Compliance Data Bank": Learn about opportunities to participate in public meetings and make comments on New Orleans area restoration projects (as well as other Corps projects).

Letters to the Editor and Op-Eds:

The Times-Picayune letters@timespicayune.com

THE ADVOCATE <http://www.2theadvocate.com/help/letters>

Questions/Comments: Contact National Wildlife Federation's New Orleans Office at (225) 229-1944