

YOU ARE INVITED TO THE:

2018 FUTURE OF

MARDI GRAS FORUM

What happens when lots of New Orleanians who are passionate about how they celebrate their Mardi Gras come together to share their ideas? On October 18, join “parade goers and parade throwers” to brainstorm about everything from waste reduction along parade routes to locally made throws. You’ll leave inspired to start new Mardi Gras traditions that will make your Carnival experience even better. Roundtable and expo event at Carver Theater kicks off with a panel discussion moderated by Errol Laborde at 6 pm. For more details and to learn how you can participate, visit the link below.

Thursday, October 18th from 5:30 - 9:00 pm Carver Theater, 2101 Orleans Ave

This event is free and open to the public.

➡ <https://www.urbanconservancy.org/futuremardigras/> ⬅

Media Sponsor

Co-Host